

“WE MARCH WITH SELMA”

A Student-Curated Exhibit celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the 1965 Voting Rights Act

Carson-Newman University, Appalachian Cultural Center
Opens Sunday, January 31, 2016 at 3:30pm.

Special Guests: Alverenne Bridgeforth and Candy Carawan
Free and Open to the public through April 2016.

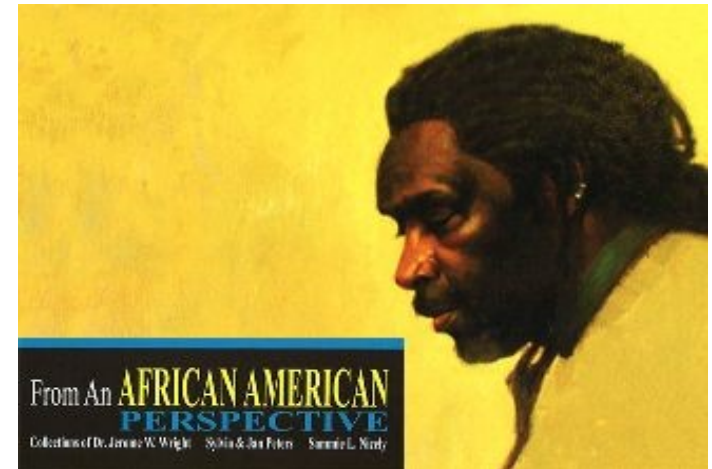

The exhibit is part of the 2015-2016 university observance
“A Simple Justice: The Celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the Voting Rights Act.

From Africa to Appalachia Foundation is hosting a n exhibit honoring local artist, humanitarian and activist, Sammie Nicely, who died last fall. Selected pieces of his work will be on display

Feb. 7—Feb 28 in the Edith Davis Gallery at Rose Center.

The opening celebration is on Sunday, Feb 7th.

The gallery opens at 2PM with a presentation entitled “Faith, Family and Friends” at 3pm. Refreshments provided by the Rose Service Guild.

Legendary Blues Musician, Wallace Coleman

The Bunk House, Bulls Gap, Tennessee.

Friday, February 12

Call 423-235-7414 for reservations.

Valentine’s Weekend Concert at the Rose Center

8:00PM, February 13. Tickets $20

Call: 423-581-4330 for Reservations

